Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. TERROR FOR CROOKS

"Camera Eye" Sheridan Becomes Partner of Burns.

Man Who Never Forgets the "Mug" of a Criminal Now to Be Protector of the Banks.

New York.—A ripple of ironic laughter ran through the Society of American Crooks the other day when it was announced that William P. Sheridan, of all the men in the world, had obtained his retirement from the New York police force on the score of defective eyesight.

The humor of it was that Sheridan has long been known by the sobriquet of "the man with the camera eye," meaning that every face he sees is fastened on the retina of his marvellous orb with photographic accuracy and there classified and labeled by a memory which has never yet been found at fault.

Of course, the situation was understood when it became known that Sheridan had become a partner of William J. Burns, the one time secret service man, and that they are to control the business of the American Bankers' association.

Despite their subtle appreciation of the joke this intelligence was not pleasing to the brotherhood of bank robbers.

Burns, who will be Sheridan's associate, is the man who uncovered the land frauds and turned out the grafters in San Francisco, so the combination is a portentous one to the fraternity. Whenever one of the cult that lives by introducing pieces of finely bent wire into the meshes of tellers' cages or thrives by writing other men's names on small oblongs of paper sees the sign "Members of American Banking association" staring him in the face he departs quietly, for bringing the man that was wanted with him.

It soon developed, though, that Sergt. Sheridan was an invaluable man at headquarters, and he was put in charge of the identification bureau. It was found that he could look just once at a prisoner, or, indeed, at anyone, and keep the memory fresh indefinitely. It was found, also, that he could take up a police picture sent from a distant city and read the details on the back of it casually and recall every word he had read weeks afterward. And, indeed, as years passed over his head it was discovered that his wonderful memory seemed to clarify on its daily toll and that the more facts, figures and physiognomies he absorbed, marshalled and arranged the more perfectly he was able to visualize any of them.

The Maysville and Augusta baseball teams put up a rattling good game in Hunter's bottoms yesterday afternoon. The former won out by a score of 10 to 7.

MOTHERS WHO HAVE DAUGHTERS

Find Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Hudson, Ohio.—"If mothers realized the good your remedies would do delicate girls I believe there would be fewer weak and ailing women. Irregular and painful periods and such troubles would be relieved at once in many cases. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is fine for ailing girls and run-down women. Their delicate organs need a tonic and the Compound gives new ambition and life from the first dose."—Mrs. GEORGE STRICKLER, Hudson, Ohio, R. No. 5, Box 32.

Hundreds of such letters from mothers expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for them have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

Young Girls, Heed This. Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, headache, nervousness, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences and be restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Thousands have been restored to health by its use.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

Detective William P. Sheridan.

every bank thief knows that the association never lets go. That was always the case, but now, with "Camera Eye" Sheridan enlisted in the conspiracy against them, they are asking, "What chance?"

All American crooks above the grade of petty larceny know Sheridan or have heard of him. He is to the blindfold chess player what the chess player is to the head waiter who never gives you the wrong hat, and to the head waiter what the waiter is to the parlor entertainer who can juggle five oranges. In other words Sheridan is a New York detective who can remember every face and every picture he has ever seen, and whose mind is such a storehouse of the statistics of crime that he can call off the records and characteristics of thousands of lawbreakers as pat as his morning prayers.

Sheridan was on the force a few weeks, when Inspector Thomas Byrnes ordered him to report in plain clothes.

"Do you know where Maiden Lane is?" asked Inspector Byrnes in his inimitable manner.

Sheridan saluted and said he did.

"Then go down there and learn to be a detective," commanded the great man.

And Sheridan went. And his inspector watched his work.

The young detective's first big chance came when he was told to go after the man most desired in the celebrated National Park bank case and bring him in.

Again Sheridan saluted and went away and, except for an occasional draft on the office, was not heard from in six months. Then a telegram came, and two days later Sheridan came,

WE TOLD YOU SO!

What? That flour is too cheap. Don't delay buying. It's going higher. "Jefferson" Crushed Wheat Flour will please you and make you healthy. M. C. RUSSELL CO.

J. C. Martin of near Ripley, O., came near getting in bad while in town Saturday taking in the sights. He cashed a check for $35 at the Farmers' and Traders' Bank, drawn on a Ripley Bank, with no funds in Bank to meet payment. Had not a friend in this city come to his rescue he evidently would have fared badly.

GREAT DISAPPOINTMENT

To Thousands of Circus Goers—The City Thronged With Visitors, Who Fail to Get a Show For Their Money—Too Much Rain and the Big Attraction Gives Us the Go-By

That Maysville is the best and greatest circus town on the map was fully demonstrated Saturday when thousands of eager visitors flocked to town from miles around—braving the inclement weather—to witness the grand parade and attend the Greater Norris & Rowe Circus, menagerie and hippodrome, billed to give two performances here on that date, and great was the disappointment when the management announced that on account of wet grounds and unfavorable weather the date here would be canceled and the show moved on to Newport, where it exhibits today.

If the weather man had been more gracious and instead of the twelve hours' steady rain had provided a clear day, as he should have done, at least seven or eight thousand people would have attended the afternoon and night performances.

It has been a long time since a circus has visited us and the city folks and people hereabouts are actually famishing for a big tented, three-ring show, with the red lemons, funny clowns, tinselled actors, caparisoned horses, elephants and menagerie galore.

While the Norris & Rowe Circus had never before appeared in this neighborhood, it is said to be one of the real "big tops" of the country, and what was seen of it here tended to verify the truthfulness of the claim.

"It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," for while many show-goers were disappointed, it is a fact that every livery stable in town was taxed to its utmost capacity in providing stable room for the hundreds of horses and conveyances of our country folk, and in a business way the livery men have no kick coming on account of the down-pour.

The same is true of The Pastime and Washington Opera-house picture shows. Both did an immense business, and the mercantile trade in general are well satisfied with the volume of business and receipts of the day.

A first-class circus can drop in on us at any old time—provided Jupiter Pluvius does not monkey with the rain card—with the assurance of having a full house and being accorded a hearty welcome.

A MODEST THIEF

Some time last night a thief or thieves entered the Central Hotel bar and robbed the cash register of $2.80 in small change and abstracted a box of fine cigars from the show case. The gentleman of leisure, of whom Maysville has her full share, was at least modest in that he was so easily satisfied in his wants, and he will no doubt be chagrined when he learns that he overlooked a bunch of money that was nearby. An entrance was made through a rear end window. Mr. Sammons is thankful that he escaped as easily as he did.

Do You Realize What It Means

To Do Business in One Place for Fifty Years?

It means but few of the adults who dealt with our Mr. D. Hechinger in his early days are now in the land of the living.

The majority of the goods we now sell are sold to the grandchildren of his earliest patrons, they follow the footsteps of their ancestors. They were taught in their early boyhood that Hechinger's is a "safe" place to deal, "and it is." The pride we take in our business is above money consideration.

Until the end of this week, on account of Mr. D. Hechinger's fiftieth anniversary, we are going to give a

Cash Discount of 20%

On all merchandise in our store, barring Shoes. It is early in the season to make such a cut, but this will be one week in our business career that we give our patrons our profit, or nearly so. In fact, a good many Suits and Furnishings sold at this discount we are unable to replace for the price.

We want our friends to take advantage of this sale. Very truly yours,

SEE What the Postmaster General Says!

PUT UP MAIL BOXES

The Postmaster General Thinks Every Family Should Have One at Their Front Door

One of the suggestions of the Postmaster General for economizing in his Department is that people put up little boxes or other receptacles at their front doors so that the Postman will not have to stand and wait until somebody answers the bell. A great deal of time is wasted by the Postman having to wait. It is in the interest of an efficient and economic service to provide these little conveniences. And then they are not only conveniences for the Postman; they are also for the people of the house. "There is the mail man," says the housekeeper, with her hands in the dishwater or mixing the dough for the family bread; "run, Johnny, to the door," and Johnny is down in the back yard trying to lasso a black cat, but by this time the mail man, thinking no one is at home, goes on with the expected letter from Mary, who is visiting over in Chicago, and so the family is deprived of the pleasure for several hours, simply for the lack of a neat little box at the front door.

In anticipation of this announcement we have purchased a number of Mail Boxes of the latest approved pattern. Just the thing. Call and see them.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE

Immense Gathering at the First Baptist Church Last Night

A large and representative audience gathered at the First Baptist Church last night, the occasion being a union meeting of the congregations of Maysville Churches to discuss the Anti-Saloon League side of the temperance question. Dr. Parker, President of the Anti-Saloon League of Kentucky, presided and also delivered a stirring address, as did Dr. T. S. Buckingham.

A similar meeting was held at Scott's M. E. Church, colored, at which the burning subject of rowdism and rampant intemperance in Maysville was ably discussed by Pastor Broadus and others.

Our Semi-Annual SUIT SALE Is Now in Progress

The enthusiastic response to the first notice of this sale strengthens our opinion that there are no inducements like style and quality allied to low prices. The sale is just well under way, so to speak, but long before it is half over people will realize it is one of the most momentous trade movements as far as value-giving and satisfaction are concerned that has occurred for a long time. It will be scarcely necessary to remind you that the reductions are genuine and accurately stated, as inspection will reveal. Money never commanded so much value. Do not wait until the assortment is depleted, come early and get the benefit of the widest possible choice.

WAS HE JUSTIFIED?

A cutting scrape took place Saturday afternoon at the home of Charles Davis, colored, in Third street, Sixth Ward, in which Davis was the victim of a vicious assault at the hands of his stepson, Hiram Alexander, aged about 23, who wielded a knife in a terrible manner on the head and neck of his step-father, aged 44, and that he did not succeed in killing him outright was not the fault of the knife-user, who was evidently cutting to kill. The cause leading up to the bloody affray is a family affair. Young Alexander became enraged, so it is given out, at the ill-treatment accorded his mother at the hands of Davis, who is said to be overbearing and mean when drinking. So far Alexander has evaded arrest.

THE COMET IN THE EVENING SKY.

From the evening of May 19th to the end of the month the comet will be so conspicuous in the evening sky that it will attract the attention of every one. In these few days it will move half way across the entire heavens, passing a little below Mars and above the bright star. Its head will point toward the ground in the West and its tail extend upward among the stars. As it moves Westward and recedes from the earth it will grow rapidly fainter, and in a few months will be lost to view entirely. But though no longer visible to us, we will know that it is still pursuing its long journey into the depths of space, destined to return again to excite the admiration and interest of those who shall be taking our places and doing our work in the year 1986.
